Ashtanga Mysore Practice and Workshops

with Clayton Horton

Saturday 11.02.2012

9.30 – 12.30 am 3 hours
ASHTANGA PRIMARY SERIES

This workshop will be an opportunity for students to experience the Primary Series of Ashtanga Yoga in a relaxed and informative manner. Aspects of vinyasa, drishti, bandhas, mudras, and yoga philosophy will be presented. Modifications will be given for the more difficult poses in the Series. Suitable for students of all levels.

2.30 – 5.00 pm 2.5 hours
INTRODUCTION TO THE INTERMEDIATE SERIES – BACKBENDS, TWISTS AND ARM BALANCES

A healthy balance of poses sequenced to develop core strength and tone the nervous system. Foundations of technique and alignment will be addressed. Recommended for those who have a regular and consistent yoga practice. No prior Intermed. series experience required.

Sunday 12.02.2012

9.30 – 12.00 am 2.5 hours
MYSORE PRACTICE

1.30 – 5.00 pm 3.5 hours
HANDS ON ADJUSTMENTS CLINIC

This workshop will provide the opportunity for teachers and practitioners to deepen their knowledge of giving adjustments in poses common to the various traditions of Hatha Yoga. Come gain confidence and experience in giving hands on and verbal adjustments in a safe, effective and efficient manner. Seeing bodies, reading of students energies and determining students' needs will be addressed. Partnering and giving hands on adjustments while refining communication skills will provide useful skills and techniques for all.

Monday– Friday MORNING 13. – 17.02.2012

6.30 – 9.00 am
MYSORE PRACTICE; individual starting time until 7.45 am

Monday EVENING 13.02.2012

6.30 – 9.00 pm 2.5 hours
SWEET SURRENDER – HIP OPENING AND BACKBENDING WORKSHOP

This workshop is a stepping stone to accessing the tight and sometimes troublesome areas of the yogin's body. An assortment of postures to liberate the pelvis, shoulders and the heart. By nature, a usually well attended workshop. Please be advised not to eat 3 hours before this workshop.

Thursday EVENING 16.02.2012

6.30 – 8.00 pm 1.5 hours
WAKING THE COBRA – PRANYAMA AND MEDITATION WORKSHOP

In this workshop, we will work with the elements of breath, posture, mantra, mudra and bandha to cultivate stillness, peace of mind and mental clarity. Suitable for practitioners of all levels. The workshop will begin with a brief discussion and will conclude with a seated meditation. Please be advised not to eat 3 hours before this workshop.
